Solidscape Announces Strategic China Distributor Agreement with KANGSHUO Electric Group Co. Ltd

Agreement partners leading High Precision 3D Printer Manufacturer with Diversified Kangshuo Group spanning 5 China Technology Centers

Merrimack, NH — July 22, 2014 - Solidscape®, Inc., a Stratasys company (NASDAQ: (SSYS), today announced a strategic agreement with the Kangshuo Electric Group Co. Ltd for the distribution of its line of high precision 3D printers for manufacturing of wax patterns in China.

Kangshuo Electric Group Co. Ltd. has six subsidiaries including five locations in China that offer wide geographical coverage and well-diversified distribution channels.

“Kangshuo Group’s strong business reputation and broad footprint throughout China is ideal to support Solidscape’s continuous expansion,” said President Fabio Esposito during the signing ceremony at the Kangshuo Group’s Beijing headquarters today. “Having a customer-centric partner that can deliver top quality sales and service to every major technology center in China was our strategic goal. Kangshuo Group is the absolute best choice for us.”

In recent months the Kangshuo leadership team has made multiple trips to the USA to explore Solidscape’s corporate commitment and industry-leading high precision 3D technology. “We are excited about the rapid adoption of high precision 3D printing and wanted to make sure we had the best possible products to offer to the manufacturing sector in China,” stated Kangshuo President Liu Bin during a recent US fact-finding tour. “Solidscape is a win-win for Kangshuo and the rapidly-growing China 3D Printing Market.”
